

DANIEL MIGLIN

Professional Experience

TFG LLC, Washington DC (July 2023 – Present)

Grants Project Manager

- Researches and identifies prospective funding sources and programs to support clients.
- Prepares both general and customized funding reports for clients.
- Authors, prepares, and assists with submission of grant applications to Federal, State, and Foundation funders.
- Monitors and tracks the release of funding opportunities.
- Maintain grant calendars for clients.

Diakonos, Inc., dba Fifth Street Ministries, Statesville, NC (2022-2023)

Grant Compliance Manager

- Researched, developed, and managed federal and state grants for projects that addressed homelessness, domestic violence, and veterans in need.
- Ensured performance goals were met by staff and programs, and accurately reported in applicable databases and/or grant funding organization.
- Assist Executive Director with personnel matters, hiring, and program operations as needed.

Mooreville Police Department, Mooreville, NC (2015-2022)

Detective, Crime Analyst, and Grants Specialist

- Conducted advanced investigations for felony and misdemeanor crimes to include crime scene processing, interviews, and executing search and arrest warrants; special emphasis on domestic violence and financial crimes.
- Developed, coordinated, and / or facilitated numerous community outreach programs and training, Assisted Chief of Police and designees with budget preparation, crime mapping, data analysis, strategic planning, and program development and facilitation.
- Researched, developed, and managed all aspects federal and state grants for the police department; secured $6.1 million in funding for the department.

Statesville Police Department, Statesville, NC (1992-2014)

Various ranks- Officer to Captain, Grants Specialist

- Over the course of 23 years, conducted advanced criminal internal investigations; managed recruitment, hiring, and training of officers; developed and facilitated promotional processes; researched and developed department policies and procedures as well as City ordinances; developed, coordinated, and led anti-crime initiatives, special operations, and innovative problem-solving strategies; and assisted in management of divisional budgets and operations.
- Supervised sworn and civilian staff in Patrol, Training and Personnel, Community Services, Investigations, and Professional Standards.
- Researched, developed, and managed all aspects federal and state grants for the police department; secured $3.1 million in funding for the department

EDUCATION

Gardner-Webb University, Boiling Springs, NC (2019)

Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice

North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC (2001)

Administrative Officer's Management Program- 29th Class

North Carolina Criminal Justice Education & Training Standards Commission, Raleigh, NC (2001)

Advanced Law Enforcement Certification